PLUS+1®

Propel Application Library

Mobile Machine Management

The PLUS+1® Propel Application Library (PAL) consists of GUIDE application software blocks used for engine power management, intelligent flow sharing and operating limits.

Product Highlights

Flexible library blocks enable machine specific differentiation, reduce development effort resulting in fast time to market. Pre-programmed and tested libraries support use with platform variants and ease product life-cycle management.

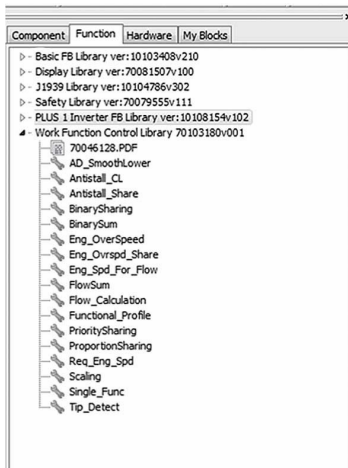

User-programmable

Library blocks allow machine specific tailoring, which is accomplished by using PLUS+1® GUIDE (Graphic User Integrated Development Environment) tool set. This environment allows the developer to configure PLUS+1® hardware, select application options, integrate the applications with other sub-system applications, and enhance the application with additional features.

Features

- GUIDE drop down menu

- Engine Power Management Include
 - Target Speed Command Calculations
 - Speed Limits
 - Anti-Stall
- Intelligent Flow Sharing Include
 - Demand Calculator
 - Flow Calculator
 - Function Priority Hierarchy Structuring
 - Output Profiling
 - Function Scaling
 - Active Dampening
- Operation Limits
 - Longitudinal load moment control/ indication
